

Samantha Fitzenrider

Mezzo-Soprano

493 N. Rocky River Dr. ☐ Berea, OH 44017 ☐ 216.650.2333 cell
sjfitzenrider@yahoo.com

Biography

Samantha Fitzenrider, the granddaughter of a pastor, grew up in small-town Valley City, Ohio. She completed her Master's of Music in Voice Performance at the Chicago College of Performing Arts. In conjunction with her Performance studies she also obtained her Pedagogy degree and currently enjoys teaching and coaching voice students of various levels and experience at Baldwin Wallace College's Conservatory of Music.

An active church and wedding soloist, Samantha has been privileged to share in the expression of numerous couple's commitment of love. Samantha regularly performs for weddings at in various churches and chapels around Ohio and Chicago, Illinois. Samantha always welcomes the opportunity to share her love of music with a couple in their joyous occasion.

Samantha is a frequent National Anthem Soloist performing for such esteemed sports teams as The Cleveland Browns, The Akron Aeros, and many others. She has performed the roles of Gretel in Hansel and Gretel, Lola in Douglas Moore's Gallantry, and Aunt Emma in A Childhood Miracle. Samantha debuted at Huntington Theater in the patriotic music review G.I. Jukebox. She enjoys performing in a variety of recital formats from Galleries to private gatherings. Samantha has also sung with well-respected choruses such as the Cleveland Orchestra Chorus.